

To whom it may concern:

2 day I was involved in a fight!!

Well kinda sorta --

Here's the story --

In tune with my job responsibilities I asked the elderly man I'm in charge of pushing around the prison, as well as cleaning his cell, & ~~serving~~ serving breakfast, lunch, & dinner - "R u done with your tray?"

He responded in the affirmative so I grabbed the ~~3~~ eaten sloppy joe, cake, tater tots, string bean soup & proceeded to empty it. As I was pouring the residue of water in a ~~pocket~~ bucket, one guy threw a kick at another guy. I stood there in shock --

As I dumped the tray in the garbage & attempted to safely return to my seat that fight escalated & another one started ~~bitch~~ behind me? In the blink of an eye I was pushed & pinned against the cart we put our ~~on~~ caps & ~~the~~ silver wear on. Meanwhile one of the fights was now on my right side - literally.

One of the men fell down my leg & into my - just now recovering ~~an~~ ankle, the ankle I ~~severely~~ severely twisted way back in Jan. Ouch. "Hey man, get the fell off me," was all ~~I could~~ that came out.

Walking back to my seat I navigated through police running & screaming orders to "MOVE" "Get Down" "STOP FIGHTING" "STOP FIGHTING" I'm giving you a direct order STOP FIGHTING! I navigated through prisoners 99.9% who were standing up to see the fights.

Some stood on the stools attached to the chew half tables. I attempted to "excuse me" through the calm mob who shouted "Wheep that n - a" "that's what he get" "Hell yeah" "Yeah wheep him", My C.I. said. Police yelled "Go over there, go over there" "Let him go, let him go" guys were hevel "I can't.. tell him 2 let go of my (private part) tell him 2 let go of my (private part)"

Only having a cake left 2 eat I relinquished my seat. "Here I'm ~~done~~ done" yet I remained incarcerated in the chow hall. now pinned against the 2 wider partitions. The yelling & screaming ~~continued~~ continued. ~~now~~

Finally relief came. "Every body out the chow hall. leave your trays & return 2 your cell. Every body out the chow hall..."

As I proceeded out I glanced over & seen one man standing there - ~~broke~~ handcuffed - his ~~3~~ ash grey shirt & jogging pants covered in blood: someone else's blood. My old cell's blood.

The change was bad.

12:37pm walking past the chow hall & blood, I saw there was still the chance 2 be mopped up.

Fighting is stupid. I refuse 2 go out still cause they probably still talking about it. Probably still re-enacting it.. Probably still cheering about it.. Probably still sayin "If it was me I wouldn't..."

I'm incarcerated in a cell - daily falling short of God's glory - yet still striving 2 B Christ-like. Romans ~~=~~ 8~~1~~ verses 18-24 Searches 1 1/2 2 go 2 Bible College 2 B a Pastor. I'm going 4 a Bachelor's Degree in Counseling cause I need I Sarah 50:4 2 become flesh in my life Prison ~~spectator~~ spectators in making it's occupants - stoic =

Christianity spectator in making it's occupants non-stoic

And after writing this & praying I fell 2 sing. then made a b-day bracelet. 20 min later the closest the courtyard (backyard) sign some body going 2 the hole! As I juked "Maybe it's me - I'm gone be like - hey not my fault"

"they fought on my leg!"

"I know right," my cellmate responded.

No sooner had his lips closed, a "white shirt" stood outside our door. I started the getting clean from the top bunk process "Here we go." My cellmate cautiously grabbed the door. Unexpectedly the white shirt said "Mr. _____ put your shoes on, then step out -"

I sat in the top bunk more shocked, more stunned. Like what the heck?? Maybe they were talking both of us. So, as asked "What he did 2 deserve this? The guard just said - we'll discuss that when we get down there."

I waited, surely they were going to grab me too! After all they can always say I was involved because of my proximity 2 ~~the~~ both alterations. X's. On the Plop side - don't I deserve it, I mean I prayed - then sinned against God. Who does that? I felt I deserved 2 go to seg just for chastisements sake.

To seg just 4 my battered ♡'s sake. To seg just 2 get 3 days of quiet just 2 fast & pray 4 my ♡, 4 repentence, 4 space 2 cry literally 4 all the pain I've caused God & soul. Space 2 refigure things space 2 say God what's wrong w/me. Space 2 say "Sorry God please don't take ur Holy spirit from me" (Psalm 51) Space 2 get on my knees & pray. Space 2 B alone space 4 solitude space 4 yelling & screaming purposes space 2 write space 2 think space to get away from the spirit of complaint. Space 2 reevaluate my life & where its headed.

Writing this I pray 4 3 or more days 2 just be w/out a cell 2 just RE-start. 2 just drink on God's goodness ~~as~~ ~~it's~~ ~~the~~ thing I ~~it~~ gotta get this college application in the mail. Amen.

Having no cell affords me space 2 type. And not be bothered w/ the TV. Go please grant me the strength to continue. ~~me~~

"Dear God ☺ Dan just asked 2 more in w/me if that's your will ~~you~~ bring it 2 pass. God you do it cause we know the gates of hell shall not prevail against us. Amen. Oddly enuf I had a thought last night that me & Dan were in the room together? Is that you Lord. Ceeel
I confess you are God of my living arrangements
