

- Sordid lies become my reality -
"Depression"

I could be happy/content and take a kidnapped look outside the window and see a cloud/star that could remind me of a memory/word. which leads to a sentence that could be part of a conversation I once had or wish I did have.

- Illicit tears -

where was I?
When I needed you the most Sitting next to you lost and alone
as I rubbed your aching feet

Roland 8/1/14.

- I O U -

my silly putty heart
taking impressions
from those around me

Roland 6/30/14

- Fatigue -

~~in~~ ~~at~~ In vain

I claim to be a resurrection man every dead thing I've said or done remains that way

Roland 7/22/14-

- The Spiders ate my Soul -

- Iterate -

I remember saying

I love you and watched those feeble words

take flight

only to crumble from the sky

like dead butterflies

before they reached you

Roland 7/11/14.

- cant see -

This bag of bones that carries me

Every where and no where one day will meet me

when I am ready to surrender

Roland 12/4/13

- under achiever, Some time God believer -

Sitting on this torn up family heirloom couch

Waiting for my turn to see if God

really does give a shit

Roland 3/23/13.
