

Wish list pt 2

- 1) For love to either bloom once again in my life or for it to die completely.
- 2) To be able to explain myself clearly to my kids, family and others.
- 3) Forgive myself for all the pain and suffering I've caused to my kids, family, and the strangers I've ripped off.
- 4) Stop hating my life and accept everything in my life, the good and the bad have been because of my decisions.
- 5) Smile more, stop staring at the ground as I walk and try to find a way out of the maze inside my mind that keeps me sad, angry, hurt, and feeling depressed.
- 6) Get rid of the trash that people in my life have handed me, I've been carrying this shit around since I've been a child. My arms hurt and I'm tired of people thinking it's OK to share their trash with me.
- 7) Write one poem that I am really proud of.
