Hey Ann.

You know I love you! You know I want you, but you also know that I've advised you against it. For my life is stressful, and I believe it's going to cause you more heartache and pain. Pushing you out of my life to protect you in 1987, didn't work, so I'm letting you make the call. And if you decide at any point and time that it's in your best interest to walk away, I'll be heart broken, but I'll not only understand, but I'll want you to do it. For I only want what's best for you. I love you with heart and soul!" And to be honest, when I rethink it, I keep saying, "she's better off without me." But you've told me in this comment and in your letters what you want. I'm going to allow you to hold on, as long as you can. If you at any point need to walk away, then I want you to do so, cause I've always loved you, and always will.

And I only want what is best for you. And me knocking on death's door, in my opinion isn't good for you. But we are together officially and everyone who reads this knows it.

I love you with all my heart!

Please take care.

God bless you.

Love For J

Jonnie xoxo
