Good... I got your most welcome blog! Thanks for reaching out 2 me. Ha look I wanna speak on A real note. So miss me with all the negative name calling. Save that for the kids. Your correct. I was A drug dealer. The key word is "was" I'm far from A saint. But I'm not exactly the same person I use to be. I've done alot of changing. The way you feel bout me is the way I use to feel about myself. See, dumb ppl run with what they heard or think. I know your comment was referring 2 my crime. I know what really happened. I live with this daily. It bothers me that there is so many hurt ppl, that I've partly caused. So much anger and emotions are pointed at me and I'll accept it. You fail 2 realize that the real person that caused this is free as I write this message. (Eva) I pray daily for my haters and Boses family. I know theres nothing I can do 2 change the situation. But I wanna some how give back. I believe God can change all circumstances. By the way I'm one of the hardest, inside or out. I've never been A weak minded person. I'm just trying to push this energy and quality new A positive way/direction. There's not a day that goes by that I have no regret in my heart. I hurt for every one involved. Even you. Am I Remorseful? Hell yeah! If you ever want answers, just ask.

The other three did cry like punks and lied. They never stuck to the truth. The only time I opened my mouth was 2 say I did it when I God knows I didn't. This place don't stop me. It actually helped me. This is a minor setback for a major come back. But this time as a better person. I'm not miserable so you shouldn't be either. Stay Blessed.
