

mnjq

dharip

Hi, thanks for your comment. Sometimes the greatest pleasure is found in relief from unpleasantness - like when you have a stone in your shoe. When you finally stop and remove the stone, the feeling of relief is tremendous. That's what getting a chair is like. It is such a relief to sit normally.

I try to focus on the positives. I don't always succeed, but when I do, I have a much better outlook on life.

Harlan