

Sophie,

Hello there. Hope this missive finds you doing well. I have received your response and it is with great meekness that I say thank and even more so by your words. I can only wish that my father is proud of me. I do try to inspire justice and such things yet the clamor of non-sense seems to be the "thing" of the day.

I'm distraught that you say I'm a male "ally" to women. It only points to the fact that even in today's "free" world 'half the sky' (women) are not due to my 'kin'. Nonetheless I am a very strong ally and supporter of true feminism, not the Hillary Clintons-stuff. Unfortunately I don't have a daughter but maybe in the future.

Some of my favorite authors include Karl Marx, Frederick Engels, V. I. Lenin, Mao Tse-Tung.
