"One step closer to... Death!"

The dishonorable Court of the United States of America has denied my Federal Habeas Corpus, putting me one step closer to death.

I've been under the delusion that one of these sorry Courts in America, would give a damn about due process constitutional Rights and poor white trash like myself. I'm damn idiot for continuing to buy into that "Equal Justice" crap.

only thing poor white trash gets, is equally screwed over, by America's no good two face judicial system. And that's just the hard core truth about it.

The way my case has been mishandled from day one, the appointment of incompetent inexperienced counsel, no rich person would ever have to endure.

Then I have to deal with an incompetent direct appeal attorney. I had three Caldwell vs. Mississippi violations that would have sent me back for resentencing. He didn't present them. Now I can't raise them. No! Now there procedurally barred. Why? Because some stinking attorney failed to properly do his job! Welcome to unequal justice!" "Best in the world!" "yeah - at screwing the poor!"

And then good old MR. Brody and the crappy incompetent representation he gave me. I truly believe the judge gave him something to keep the blood clothing out of evidence and witness testimony off the record. They wouldn't have done this to a judge's kid or a senator or congressman's loved one. No, you don't screw over the rich! Their privileged in this country and it's slimy two face judicial system. you don't dare put a Kennedy on death row!" Ted Kennedy didn't even go to prison in the 60s for that woman's death. Equality. hahaha. Due process, Constitutional Rights. These dishonorable judges are so fickle with applying legal cases that it's a friggin' joke!!" you can find the same exact cases, and the judge depending on his mood will apply or not apply the case law. America has a garbage judicial system. I'd felt better, if the arresting officer's, had blown my brains out on the street, and threw my dead body in the ditch!" cause this court system, is a stinking FRAUD!!" And I don't care if you like it or not. American's, because the fact remains is it is what it is, a system that screws over the poor.

yeah - I'm going to die in the death chamber. And I'm going to go out speaking out against these dishonorable men and women of the court and their low life garbage judiciary system.

Regretfully
but truthfully
submitted.
