

BAD NEWS FOR JUSTICE
FOR ALL!!

APPEALS COURT REINSTATED WISCONSIN
I.D. VOTERS LAW. TICKER GMA SAT-URDAY SEPTEMBER 13, 2014 7:AM. CDT
FOR THE LATEST GO TO ABCNEWS.COM

Friday, September 12, 2014, the (7th)
Circuit Court of Appeals, located in Chicago, Republican Presidential Appointees, of Three Judges Panel heard the Parties / ATTORNEYS arguments WIS E 3 NEWS.COM channel 3000.COM SEPTEMBER 12, 2014
FRIDAY 6:AM. CDT, and later that day issued the order lifted the District Court, located in Milwaukee, INJUNCTION BANNING the states ENFORCEMENT of the I.D. Voters Law.

Therefore, it will be in effect
for November 2014 upcoming Republican Governor Scott Walker
Re election Day voting.

It's widely reported that Republicans in control of state governorship and legislature passed
the I.D. VOTE Law dampen Blacks, Latinos, Native Americans and so on votes while simultaneously enhancing Republicans and specifically Governor Walker's Reflection Odds.

By: LEON Z RBY DATED: SEPTEMBER 13, 2014

IN THESE TIMES MAY 2014

Did a relevant and all seasons
Political ANY : RACES TO WATCH
IN 2014, THE CRITICAL BATTLES ARE IN THE STATES " brilliant - excellent illuminating analysis - BY DAVID MOBERG; which I will share
his analysis of WISCONSIN with you:

" WISCONSIN

SCOTT WALKER (R) INCUMBENT (elected in 2010, Scott Walker epitomizes the new wave of Republican governors enacting pitiless austerity measures.
He's gutted government, union rights
and ANY remnants of social democracy
in a state that was once moderately progress.

Mary Burke (D): Despite her corporate roots as a Trek Bicycle ex. Burke has promised to raise wages, profect labor rights and improve education. But so far, she comes across as a sensitive soul than a tribune of the people.

THE POLLING: 49%. BURKE 44%

[THE CURRENT POLLING: BURKE 49%,
WALKER, 47%]

THE STAKES: STOPPING THE SYMBOLIC leader of the Republican assault on the industrial Midwest. ENDING Walker's Presidential bid before it starts. IN THESE TIMES - COM COVER STORY, 2d p. 20

AMEN!!!

BY: LEON IRBY

4 of 4 DATED SEPT. 14, 2014