

Life

Life is strife,
When you cheat on your wife,
It is unfair,
When you treat others with less care,
It will leave you lean,
When you are mean,

Life is fair,
When you don't go there,
It is humble to those,
Who treat others like gold,
Even though you grind your ax,
You'll never get the full facts,

It is better to be kind,
Then foolishly blind,
Wasting all that time,
Trying your very best to shine.
