

- Love, Please forgive me -

Angry hands

clench into pain inducing birds of pain

far away stars

slam into the back of her eyes.

crimson fluid induced prayers slowly escape

through battered lips

- Sinful -

That bastard

Stole my innocence!

in sickness

buried my soul

in an unmarked grave,

Gave me a life time of questions and doubt crimes committed to stay high up in the sky

I searched for a soul

that was never mine
