

Donnie,
 what's up. Dawg? Thanx for the LONG ASS letter! It's good to hear you're doing good there. They're on me like Ebola on an African! You know how they do it. They got me for Residue of a Tylenol 3. You know, in a little bottle. It was so petty that the LAB listed the weight as: "Not Available - Residue". IN other words all that they can actually prove is I was in possession of something that came in contact with something. How lame are they? You know they don't care what they can prove. You're guilty no matter what. And when I 602'd it they screened it out saying I failed to state facts or some lame shit. My biggest argument is that cell I was in, 3102, was an intake cell w/ a large turnover rate and they never searched it or even cleared it of all property before I moved in. The Dom says that is absolutely required and shall be recorded. It says its to "fix responsibility or absence of responsibility for serious contraband found in the cell." (You know I do my homework!) This is in the DOM 52050.16 and the TITLE 15 § 3287(a). But the LT. says Im supposed to do a cell search! Aint that a Bitch? In my appeal I tell them that nowhere does it say inmates search cells. That is staff's job. I told them that if its my job then I need to be trained to do cell searches just like the guards and that includes telling me where all the good hiding places are so I can search them! The LT. knows its not my job, but had to blame it on me so he could justify finding me guilty. Like they need justification! Needless to say Im on testing...

for another year! No visits, no phone. They've completely cut me off from all my family, including you, which is a terrible thing for someone's state of mind. It tends to make you stop giving a fuck. I got another 115 for tattoo stuff so there's my C/C for 6 months. Last Monday I refused a 1/4 because I already gave my A for this month. That's another 115, but that should be easy to beat. At least on Appeal. They don't believe in doing the right thing unless they are forced to. Check the TITLE 15 § 3315 (f)(c) on pg. 144. I have to provide a minimum of $ per month. Not 5. Not 30. And I'm not volunteering for nothing! At this point I have so many points and I'm on C/C and I can't see or talk to my family anyway so who cares? They can't really do anything to me that hurts me any more. I have been staying right though (other than that justified refusal) the bottle failed me a couple of times, so I can't trust it.

Every one always asks about you and if I've heard from you and how you like it there. Bubba went to Quentin, but I hear that they're not letting people like him with heinous 'R's on their jacket walk the yard. Oh yeah - it's TRUE. That's why he's been 115 free for 25 years or some crap and still can't get a date. Figures.

I'm still working on that extra 19 pts. they gave me. ~~It~~ It will help a little.

I started painting again for a while. I did 7 paintings and sold one to that Rick dude - that Jewhovah's Witness - for $25.00! Now I'm sitting here w/ 6 more that I don't know what to do with. Oh yeah - I did an old flathead ~~Harley~~ Harley in an overgrown field under a...

tree for fuzzy. I forgot about that one. That one came out to about $27.00. You know how hard it is to survive without money here so ~~the~~ you know that helped. I've pretty much kicked my bad habits - no more smoking - so I'm not getting in debt. Until I get a stressed out moment and lose to the craving of course!

Lyvonne's doing a few shows that we get here so I see her name on TV every once in awhile. She does West Coast Customs on Discovery (or Velocity) and Chip Foose's "Overhaulin'". Remember that one? The rest are on the TRAVEL Channel - EXTREME RV's; FLIPPIN' RV's, etc. (American Meth LAB?) She also did The SEMA car show that was on 10.25.14 or the Saturday before. I forget.

I'll end this for now, but I'll stay in contact. There's nothing they can do about a parolee writing to you, right? Oh yeah - haven't got your papers to Dale yet. No Hoff for 2 weeks! He'll get it though.

My love and respects to you, Brother.
