

When you smell
the fragrance
of early morning dew
you are safely
in my heart

When you taste
the sweetness
of a warm summer day
you are safely
in my heart

When you hear
the wind blowing
on a cool fall day
you are safely
in my heart

When you see a star
shining in the sky
on a clear winter's night
you are safely
in my heart

When you stop
even for a moment
and think of me
I am safely
in your heart.
