It was good to hear from you son. I was surprised that you had reached out to me but I'm just thankful. How is my son Playa? I'm sure he's big. I can't wait to hold him. I go up to population next month so we'll have contact visits. Maybe you and mom can come and bring the baby. I'll miss you and the boys. I love them. Playboy I love you too. But how can you just leave me here with out you ever visiting or writing? I know that I screwed up but damn how much more do I have to suffer? I just want to hear from you every now and then. I wanna know you're OK. Can you please connect your cell phone so I can call you every now and then. I miss you so much. I'm here if you ever wanna talk. No matter the situation I will always love you. I pray for you daily. Well Steph I said what's up. OK well end this. I don't wanna take to much more of your time. My love is unconditional for you. Stay blessed.

Love Mommy...
