STEELERS.COM

I believe I just may be the Truest, Realist STEELERS FAN
in all of Wisconsin:)

I've been following the Pittsburgh Steelers since the 1978 season (I was a small boy);

When Bill Cowher was head
coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers
He used to go out and get these defensive ends from these colleges.
He would bring them in and then convert them in to Outside linebackers.

In this manner the Pittsburgh
STEELERS formed a formidable RUN DEFENSE. Teams just could NOT run on us.

In recent years I've noticed Coach Tomlin does NOT follow Cowher's old system.
What I would like to know,
is this the reason
opposing teams are running on the Pittsburgh STEELERS?
