

No Way Out

yesterday was a day of tragedy! a TDC Prison Bus ran off the high way only to be struck by a passing truck 15 people were on the bus, usually it carries up to 45 people. 10 of those died 2 officers and 8 inmates died.

Did you know for the inmates there was no way out? Did you know for any civilian theres always an emergency exit? But for us we are locked in cages chained and handcuffed together arm and arm with no seat belts. I truly feel sorry for the people who died and for their families. But I thought about how in that event for the inmates there was no possible escape from such a tragic event. Later I heard a lot of people turned to facebook only to talk about it and was horrified to learn "a lot" were happy about all the inmates dying. I can't see how a person could be so inhumane and say such a horrible thing. I feel just as bad about the officers as I do the inmates. I wouldn't want a single soul to lose their lives. I just happened to think about the situation for the inmates and realized that could happen to any of us at anytime and that I could even die in here while getting out. deaths happen all the time in here normally from peoples health but also at the hands of others and freak accidents.

So its my hope that those of you who do have family in here realize anything could happen and you could lose a chance to reconcile.

Maybe you are just angry or disappointed whatever the reason. Dont look back and regret the fact that you didnt give them a chance. If they wronged you but you didnt forgive them whatever the reason. Dont Be Someone who "wished" they had more time.

Since the accident we raised our flags in tribute to those who passed away at half mass and if any who read this was a victim I want you to know how deeply sorry I am for your loss.

They didnt deserve such a death But I believe that in some scope of rational explanation

They are in a far better place

Thats Believing in a higher power Mine Being God and It was their appointed Time to be forgotten of their Sins and go to Heaven

But I wont Preach to you all Because I have no Right to

They were Granted their Freedom parolled

and if any of you would like to talk I want you to know I am here for you and that I Pray for you and hope you all find Peace.

Respectfully

Toddly
