

Nate's News created 15 Feb. 2015

Ahoy There Readers,

What to say.... I'm stuck inside these four walls with another p.o.s. for a cellie. What I mean by p.o.s. is, I gotta hear him tell me how I'm evil & going to hell, while watching him get high on shit he bought with money he begged from his mom (who lives on SSI, supports another son + addict who lives in her basement) & listening to his stories about how he used this chick for that, got high, turned her into a junkie.... Then, a couple hours later, he wants to hear me read & explain the Bible to him.

F.Y.I., this is the kinda guy who's against suing/complaining about staff abuse, because then staff might hassle him for getting high. And guys like this are so scared of losing their dope, they're paranoid & think guys like me (very few!) will tell on them, so try to get us out of the way -ironically, often by telling on us or planting shit on us.

I'm to be shipped soon, as is my p.o.s. cellie. Although I like socializing and having fun with others, I expect to be very lonely at my next prison, because it will be full of these kinds of prisoners. Hopefully I'll find one or two good nerds to hang out with.)

There are some good people in prison, like my buddy Cole. (Hope y'all liked the art of his I posted!) But crap's odor surpasses that of roses, sticks in our memories better too.

Anyone wanting to write me should verify my address at bop.gov first & put "Forwarding Requested" under their return address.

At the moment, I only have 15¢ in my account & would be grateful to anyone who sends me money, which I need for postage, art supplies & clothing. This can be done by mailing a money order to: Nathaniel Lindell #99582-555
c/o U.S. B.O.P.

P.O. Box 474701

Des Moines, Iowa 50947

Or via Western Union, City Code FBOP, State code D.C. -or something like that -Western Union will explain how.

Later, Nate