Need out of this cage. 5:38 PM. I got back in OFF the yard at around 3:40. I was so cold, I could hardly get undressed. My hands were that bad OFF. I'm going to sleep right now and tomorrow, my goal will be to change the way we go to rec in the freezing rain.

February 18, 2015 4:33am been up since 3:00 was a rough night pain in my back and legs, that cold yesterday being stuck in that rain for 2 1/2 hours was killing my back & knee. I've already written a request to the warden this morning to get rain coats sold on our canteen the way they sell them to population. Today I'm going to write out and have friends send in e-mails addressing this. Just looked up at the T.V. news was on I seen Dudes picture (Jerry Correll) and he got a stay, so glad to hear that. No more executions until the U.S. supreme court rules on those drugs. Well I need to write.

Saturday Feb 21, 2015 4:51 am. Been a rough night. My head is pounding, throat is sore, been coughing, threw up once last night. I know this is from Tuesday's yard being in the cold and rain. We should have been able to come back in when we asked. I've got to change that and get us rain coats. That's wrong of them pulling us in that type of weather and not allowing us some sort of protection. Well I've washed some of my clothes. I'll see if I can get the sheets done. I can't get any meds for this cold. Best I can do is sign up for sick call Monday morning, which means I'd be seen by the nurse on Tuesday. Medical is sorry. I need to lay down for a bit.

6:50 am, sheets are washed and now drying. I didn't feel like doing it, but it needed to be done. I'm getting ready to eat my oat meat. It's got got raisins and pineapples in it. I've got to write a couple of letters. Didn't get any mail last night.

Sunday February 22, 2015 3:55 am. After I made the bunk yesterday morning, I got in bed and stayed there. I feel like crap right now. I've been up since 1:40 I still haven't made my bunk or cleaned the cell. I have washed up. I need to eat something and try taking some Ibuprofen. If we had phone privileges I'd call mom and tell her not to come. At least I can get some orange juice and V-8 juice out there and load up on Vitamin C. I need to eat and take some meds. It was 24 years...
