Great news! I am happy to report that with your help and support I was able to force the department of correction to DISMISS disciplinary report No. 330309 under our "full court press" to expose the abuse of "Reporting Staff" Karen L. DiNardo.

As we all knew would occur, in one way or another, Deputy DiNardo was given the clear message that a prisoner has a constitutional right to "invite" government officials to come into the prison and view first hand the abuse and failures this deputy and her cohorts visit upon prisoners and society as a whole. Their "dirt" must be exposed.

Due to this great news I will be working hard this week to ask other government officials to come into the facility and meet with a panel of educated and concerned prisoners who will detail for them the abuse and public safety failures that wardens like Karen L. DiNardo engage in each and every day. Your streets are less safe due to the perverted vision of gulag officilas like Deputy DiNardo. She has stolen your money for over 31 years while producing a 47% recidivism rate in the state prison system.

ALL PRISONERS HAVE THE CONSTITUIONAL RIGHT TO COMPLAIN ABOUT CONFINEMENT CONDITIONS TO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND THE PUBLIC AT LARGE. AN ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF THOSE CONSTITUTIONALLY PROTECTED COMPLAINTS IS TO "INVITE" THOSE WHO CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT THE ABUSE/FAILURES TO COME INTO THE RESPECTIVE PRISON AND VIEW THE ABUSE/FAILURES FIRST HAND.

Deputy Karen L. DiNardo may not like this fact, but that is just too bad. Her attempt to use the parchement of the United States Constitution as her own personal toilet paper has been thwarted. Viva Free Speech! Viva acts of civil disobedience!!

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR SUPPORT! THANKS TO HARVARD P.L.A.P.! THANKS TO ATTORNEY JOHN REINSTEIN! THANKS TO SUSAN MORTIMER! THANKS TO SANDRA MUISE! THANKS TO CURE-ARM! THANKS TO THE ACLU OF MASS! THANKS TO BREAD & WATER PRISONERS! THANK YOU TO BETWEEN THE BARS! THANK YOU TO ALL READERS!
