

MAMA'S BOY

3/31/15

My first sighting, my first friend, my first love, is you my beautiful mother!

There is no words capable of depicting the depth of my love of you mother!

My only regret in life is disappointing you mother. I know you would say, you are not disappointed in me, because like always you see no flaws in me. But my current circumstances is not the direction you pointed me towards, you raised me better then this, therefore my deepest apology for this!

My only fear is losing you, I know you would say "Boy you only fear God"! Like always pumping courage in my heart.

I remember it like it was yesterday, being waken up at 11:00pm by you, asking me a 7 year old to protect you, by walking with you to the market to get your late night snack. That night made me a mama's boy. Though I was only 7, I knew my obligation, and I was ready to die to protect you, Your my mommie! I am a very proud "mama's Boy"!

You made me respect all women. I treat women so respectful because you and my beautiful sisters proved to me just how amazing great women are. Thank You for my life, and for being a astonishing mother to me.

You raised me correctly and I promised you I've changed. Well my actions will continue to show you, you did not raise a failure. I will show you, My promise!

"FOREVER THE LOVE OF MY LIFE, I LOVE YOU MOTHER!"
