

I MUST TELL JESUS? ¹¹

Tell the Universe

how grateful you are for people in your life that contribute to your health & safety. - WHY?

Because OFTEN people will think that you are up to something and try hard to dismiss your attitudes of gratitude as mere words.

Tell the Universe, give the Creator thanks because "HE" (IT) is really the source of EVERY blessed truth that we realize. People, often are not spiritually, psychologically, nor emotionally positioned or conditioned to BE receptive or open to this demonstration of appreciation.

Believe me - they will make sincere efforts to dismiss you, my (our) attempt to give them honor, where and when the honor is due. This is why we MUST come to terms with the BALANCE LAW of not just GIVING, but also being RECEPTIVE. Because "being" RECEPTIVE provides someone else the chance to GIVE.
