

To those who care:

3-19-15

In God's love 4 me He caused enough 2 tell me "U all over the place. Calm down - otherwise u'll never get anything done, including the things I called U 2 do.."

He so works in mysterious ways... See this meaningful revelation came after I was surprised with a "check up" from psych services. During the interview I unintentionally lied in. See when asked about my diagnoses of Impulse Control Disorder I responded, "I don't believe in that. See I'm more spontaneous that's why I ~~like~~ don't like girls who wear make up. I ~~mean~~ I'm the type 2 say "hey let's go 2 the beach - right now." Don't got time 4, 4hrs of hair & makeup. That's fun & it keeps the relationship going...". Shortly thereafter I mentioned that I was sent 2 prison 4 - Discipline. -

Leaving the "spontaneous office" that's primary objective is to house unot library books - I seemingly asked back, "Why doel this man come see me? U allowed it 2 happen if a reason. Amen.

What am I supposed 2 take from this moment? Amen"

A thought from earlier came & stvel
another wrinkle in my brain! lookin at my desk myself said, "U may be Christian
- but - ur desk ain't!"  parents

And I use 2 probe my self
on been so organized & intentionally arrangeel. I once knew where every thing was, now I have to literally go through everything just 2 find something. That's not good. Every thing is sporadic - like my handwriting

care → ?

I'm a mess!

NB ways after the meeting God spoke 2 me about how as of late I've been lacking in the discipline dept. :: that's why none of the thousands of books
I started writing are finished. Plus
~~to~~ told myself 2 write them (yikes)

This morning I pimed down thought I had been wrestling with during the night watches.

"U haven't been intentional about pursuing the Kingdom of Heaven & it's righteousness, u've been mere "Martha" & less "Mary" (Luke 10) U've been
more intentional about earthly things (bashed bull, prestige, publish books, & helan
a wife...) & less intentional about Heavenly things (win'n souls, reflection Christ, bein a minister etc.). U really been walkin by sight not faith."

Hence ur prayin less & not having a desire 2 do ur Bible college homework. That's ur Impulse control disorder right there! U've been

"observing the world so U haven't sown" (Ecclesiastes 11:4) & since that's the case U haven't been doing things I called U 2 do, with all your God-
given might. (Ecclesiastes 9:10) U
have 2 get back 2 square 1 -
the basics - other wise U fightin a lose'n battle. (More yikes) I know U miss Me, so - return 2 Me (Amen) Repent
ofta ur actions & I will heal U
of that Impulse Control Disorder,
diagnoses. Amen.

I help some one else -

here's some things I haven't

Blosgalicious 1-13-15

Today I awoke w/my mind stayed on Jesus. Pondering Psalm 37:4 (read it. ponder it) After goin 2 the lib (short for library) I went back to my cell & took a nap. The plan was to ~~sleep~~ ^{lie} down on my pillow & mattress till 11:10 am standing count. God had other plans!! ~~Felt~~ Feeling well rested I arose at 10:47am & decided I would get my face together & warm up some coffee. Not much of a coffee guy but I had some left over from last night. NE ways sitting at ~~the~~ a day room table I was reminded - by God - that I forgot to "sign in" from the lib. I ~~had~~ leaped 2 my feet then patiently waited 4 people to sign in from school, then I signed in - 9:11, I n my I thanked God 4 the gentle reminder (& early wake up) There's more - being nosy I noticed that somebody else 4 got to sign in. ~~After~~ After I observed that he was on the unit playin chess, I took the liberty to sign him in - w/out tellin him or throwin it in his face. (I ~~wouldn't~~ do that) So feeling I knew God is good & loves me. See, ~~HIM~~ ~~reminded~~ reminding me to sign in saved me a ticket, which saved me at least a couple months/ yrs of prison time. Yup. See every time I catch any infraction it can (& will be) used 2 ~~be~~ justify my stay in prison longer!?

Moving on, 11am I started typing up the definition of some ones name 4 his B-day present

all the while listening to Peter Briscoe
on the radio, preach about making alone time 4 God like Jesus often did. Luke 5:16 John 6:15 Matthew 14:23 & 15:29

Luke 22:41 Yes we have 2 make time 2
listen to God (the still small voice in our cons) &
get away from the LOUD shouts of distractions that are competing 4 our attention. Yes all of the noise pollution prevents us from hearing God's loving quiet voice. Maybe right now at this minute God is tryin 2 tell u
something but u 2 busy listening to the TV radio, internet etc. Don't be afraid 2 set some alone time w/ God. It'll work wonders & Proverbs 4:23 He wants 2 tell u ur purpose - will u let Him? He wants 2
help u get through today - will u let Him?
He wants 2 remind u of things u 've got 2 say & do - will u let Him? He wants 2 tell u who 2 marry - will u let Him? He wants 2 tell u where 2 B - will u let Him?

speaking of church, hearing the call 4 chow
I decided 2 go later, so I could finish listening 2 the sermon. Then the following happened...

As I stood in line a % at the desk stared me up & down. I did the same - 2
me i'm making sure everything was up 2 par
I D out. shoes tied. pants up. Cheek.

"Hey come here."

"What are u doing eatin w/the 2nd side?"

"I have social issues so I decided I would eat last."

"That's no excuse"

"I can go back 2 my cell :)"

"Yeah why don't u do that."

I'd I went 2 the bathroom, all the while thinking Gosh I got cheeze its in my cell 2 eat & that I can actually go w/out eating (Matthew 4:4) ; I also blurdeel out "the police attitude shall not be dominien over me -"

Leaving the rest room I was called over again! Seen 2 %'s I already knew what was about 2 happen. So I prepared 2 respond accordingly. I took one ear plug out my ear, then - cautiously - the other 1

"Murphy -- Yo Haw? Is gon 2 B the regular in the ~~wall~~ weight room, so he'll be sit'n at this desk. Next time U try to eat after ur stile is called w/out a legitimate excuse, Don't bother just stay in your cell."

* Smiling ; I responded, "thank u so much."

"You bet."

So, God thank u 4 giving me the heads up & help me respond in kind 2 the attempts of Satan 2 try 2 get me 2 say or do somethin clement. Gosh thank U that I'm not super emotionally driven & impulsive like I used 2 B. Thank u 4 the faces I will enjoy later. I know they will fill me up though I missed breakfast & lunch. Amen.

P.S. everytime I set my Q to know God & tell others about Him, things like this happen. Thank God He not leaving me ignorant & satans devices.

2nd Corinthians 2:11

Thank God I NEED God ;

P.S. & As of the last 2 days I been dreamin bout being in Racine ;
Interesting. & even blue socks ;
