

FALLEN ANGEL'S

Satan, the god and father of this world rules over the world through the help of the other fallen angels that followed him and continue to follow him in opposition to the true God in heaven. Satan uses his hoard of other fallen angels to deceptively govern over the world through the philosophy that most will follow the path of the lesser of two evils. Thus turning the path of the lesser of two evils into unquestionable morality defining right from wrong. Making those of this world who become more apt at following this philosophy the recipients of the reward of splendor as they remain veiled to the truth of the god they bow down to. Thank you Jesus...

Religious conformity to the principle of morality is the carrot dangled before the masses by Satan and his hoard of fallen angels as they govern over the world of their conception. What the masses fail to discern is that the Truth is not of this world Satan is god and father of. Therefore the masses fail to realize the only light of morality Satan and his hoard of fallen angels can shine on this world is that of the false light of Christ. Which Satan uses to deceive the world into conforming to a false salvation. This same principal applies to all religions since the masses remain veiled to the Truth!

I sing praise to be a co-heir to the Kingdom of heaven with my brother Jesus Christ, as we rejoice in not being of this world. The experience of this world I share with my brother Jesus on my sojourn has awaken me to the truth of how purely evil this world is. Evil remains evil even when one journeys down the path of the lesser of two or more evils. There is no justification for evil as it is opposite all that is good and pure as it knows not the truth of pure love. Praise be to my Father God in heaven for through the wisdom of His grace I been blessed with a measure of faith in His love to help me endure my sojourn of this world of pure evil. For my Father God in heaven knew, like my brother Jesus, I would suffer persecution by Satan the father and god of this world. Glory be to my Father God in heaven as I am now able to sing to all the world in praise of His love and declare I live through His Spirit and not through the flesh of this purely, ^{evil} world.

As my sojourn of this world of evil draws near an end - I continue to reconcile with the blessing of my calling to be a prophet of woe, since there are still so many things I need to learn as I continue to spiritually mature. The most important thing is that I continue to trust and maintain faith in the will of my Father God in heaven being done as I humbly serve down the path I am lead. Being a prophet of woe brings me no joy - yet I do rejoice in the knowledge of not being of this world doomed to eternal damnation. For as I rejoice, my light shines brighter in appreciation of forgiving my enemies - as I follow the example of my Father God in heaven. Even though the evilness of this world is His enemy it is the will of my Father who has blessed me to call upon those who are now asleep in the Truth to awaken; like my brother Saul did. For Saul was once an enemy blessed by the forgiveness of our Father God in heaven.

The more I reconcile with my fate of being blessed to be a prophet of woe, the greater the calm that comes over me. As my sojourn draws near an end, I joyfully sing praise to having kept faith in the love of my Father God in heaven in having not placed a burden on me I would be unable to bear. All of my prayers - all my actions - have proven to be in service of my Father God in heaven through faith of His will being done through me. Thus, I enjoyed the protection of His armor, helmet, shield and sword given me to carry on my sojourn, so at His appointed time I would humbly awaken to the blessing of ruling over angels and know to shine His light on the true gospel of my brother Jesus Christ. As Satan and his hoard of fallen angels have no power to stop me from completing my sojourn of this world as I fulfill my calling to be a prophet of woe.

Who am I? I am One Eagle, an eagle soaring above the world cawing "WOE" - awaken to the true gospel of Christ. You killed my brother Jesus Christ the only begotten son of our Father God in heaven to come into this world in the flesh, free of sin. His presence here on earth meant heaven was here on earth and you evil people of this world born into sin followed a fallen angel, bowing down before Satan your father and god of this purely evil world. The time now draws near when you will no longer receive the loving mercy of my Father God in heaven who offered you the gift of eternal life through the wisdom of His grace. Come out from under the false light of Christ that leads to a false salvation and confess your guilt in the birthright of being held accountable for the murder of my brother Jesus Christ. Jesus is the only one who can advocate his forgiveness before our Father God in heaven. You cannot be reborn into the Spirit of our Father God in heaven without the merciful forgiveness of my brother Jesus Christ. Repent and bear the burden of your cross with the joy of knowing you are not of this evil world, as your spirit testifies to being one with our Father God in heaven.

Many through their arrogance will fail to heed the call to repent and awaken to the true gospel of Christ. They have received their rewards through veiled service to Satan and his hoard of fallen angels who have deceived the world through taking on the false light of Christ and other religious dogmas. In doing so they have placed themselves on pedestals and call themselves the morally just displaying the piety blinding them to the true gospel of Christ that only comes through faith and not the laws they themselves are unable to keep. (James 2:10) NIV®

"For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all."

Read my brother Paul's letter to the Ephesians as one who has repented to the sinful birthright all of this evil world are held accountable. Satan the god and Father of this world has tainted/perverted ~~the~~ the gospel through his ministries of the false light of Christ of which the many my brother Jesus prophesied are guilty of following and therefore have sold their souls for worldly splendor to avoid the worlds hate and persecution. Never to know the merciful blessing of the burden of the cross only those who are not of this world been graced to carry through faith and love in doing the will of my Father God in heaven.

May, 2015, once more I call out "woe" for the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and there is no greater wisdom than repenting to the birthright of killing my brother Jesus on the cross and receiving the grace of my Father God in heaven. Thank you Jesus for sharing in my sojourn and the cross I bear in your name!
