

° Saved by Self °

Don't expect to be saved

Save yourself.

Don't wait on hand-outs.

Extend your hand out only to pull those that stand in your way to the side.

Pull yourself out of that inferno.

Walk over the scorching stones with no pain.

The energy inside you will crush them to dust.

Your light will shine

Right now cherish the darkness

It is your friend.

It is silent.

It is all you see...

Flames twinkle in the distance

but you keep moving

MOVE!

There's only one path to follow

Since you've been blinded

feel your way around

See.

I know it seems crazy
but crazy
we All are

Just keep moving.
See,

the light is right there.
You look surprised.

I told you
We're here.
