Hi Cindy i know that you read my Blog from time to time so i would like to leave you a note in hopes that you have the time to write me back.

Cindy im in the middle of trying to put together a little bit of money so that i can have a package ordered this month.

I have someone who already knows how to order the package on line. She sends her own packages every month and she is willing to order the package for this month.

Please talk with matt and if the two of you are in the position to help let me know and i will send the address where you can send what money that you can.

I'm going to try to make it around a $100 package i can use what ever you can help with. It dont matter how much you can send. Your my need and i love you so the amount dont matter.

If your not in the position to help thats quite alright. Im just trying to put this together.

Give the Boys a Hug for me

You and matt take care of you self's.

PS Sorry that i havent been writing but we been busy doing alot of legal work.

Love

Donnie
