

Address Change!

For everyone who has written to me at my old Warm Springs prison address, sorry your letters were returned with no forwarding address for me. I had no idea the prison was returning my letters to you "return to sender".

So here is my new address below. I am now at Stewart Conservation Camp in Carson City, Nevada. I am finally at a minimum custody camp with about a year and a half left on my sentence before I'm released.

Thanx!

Michael
