These items were suppose to have been itemized on the DC6-220 inmate property list, individually, not done as they did, listing two boxes of canteen. There will be in my files, a DC6-220 from Nov. 2014, showing each individual canteen item listed, as well as my extention cord and ear buds are listed on there, that is proper procedure. The DC6-220 that was filled out on Monday May 4, 2015 by Sgt. A.D. Stokes and Co. Duggin was improper procedure, this was done so I'd be unable to verify what I received and did not receive in the 2 boxes. Missing was the following items. 1 Pair of sunglasses, 1000 stationary sheets, 1 Headphone ext., 1 set of ear buds, {2 salami sausages, 6 cans of Redwood dip, 2 bags of Maxwell House coffee, 2 beef bites, 2 bags of Jolly Ranchers, 1 pickle, 3 Trail mix bars, 1 Box of saltine crackers, 2 pickled sausages, 1 Little Chub sausage, 1 Beef + jalapeno cheese stick}

To verify that these items were in my locker at 3:00 PM Monday, May 4, 2015 when Sgt. Stokes took control of my property, I'm willing to submit to a polygraph exam or voice stress analysis. If the ear buds, headphone extension, sunglasses and stationary is returned, with the 6 cans of Redwood, I'll write the rest off and drop this grievance. The records of DC6-220 property and giving me a polygraph/voice stress analysis will show that procedures were not followed and will substantiate this missing property. Thank you for your time and hopefully your help.

I Ronald Wayne Clark Jr. do hereby confirm under the penalty of perjury that the above facts in this informal grievance are true and correct.

BUREAU OF CONTRACT MANAGEMENT AND MONITORING

MEMO TO: WARDENS AND FOOD SERVICE DIRECTORS

FROM: SHANE [REDACTED], OPERATIONS MANAGER

DATE: MAY 29, 2015

SUBJECT: NOTICE OF INSTRUCTION: MENU SUBSTITUTION REQUIRED FOR EGGS AND EGG SUBSTITUTES ON ALL MENUS RELATED TO SUPPLY SHORTAGE AND INCREASED COSTS.

The purpose of this notice is to provide guidance to Wardens and Food Service Directors regarding the required substitutions for eggs and egg substitutes on all menu cycles. The availability and cost for eggs and egg substitutes has been dramatically affected by the outbreak of the highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) H5. The disease has been found in wild birds and commercial poultry flocks. The Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) considers the risk to people from these HPAI H5 infections to be low. "No human cases of these HPAI H5 viruses have been detected in the United States, Canada, or internationally" according to the CDC. However, the control of the HPAI H5 virus has reduced the supply and increased the cost of eggs and egg substitute products. Therefore, the following changes are being implemented.

Eggs, as the breakfast entrée, will be replaced as follows:

- 2 oz. breakfast sausage on the regular, 4000 calorie, mechanical dental and low residue diets.

Egg substitute, as the breakfast entrée, will be replaced as follows on all diet menus:

- 1 oz diet chicken patty will be substituted for a ¼ cup of egg substitute
- 2 oz diet chicken patty will be substituted for a ½ cup of egg substitute
- 3 oz diet chicken patty will be substituted for a ¾ cup of egg substitute
- 4 oz diet chicken patty will be substituted for a 1 cup of egg substitute

Alternate Entrées utilizing eggs/egg substitute will be changed:

- Beans will be the alternate entrée for the 2200, 2800, and fat intolerance at breakfast, lunch and dinner.
- Cheese will be the alternate entrée for breakfast, lunch and dinner for the low residue diet.
- Peanut butter will be the alternate entrée for the pre-dialysis and dialysis for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

The following recipes will be changed:

- The meat fried rice recipe (1.1.0) will omit eggs and increase rice by two pounds per 100 servings.
- The bread pudding recipe (14.12.0) will replace the 2.5 pounds of eggs with 5.5 cups of ripe bananas per 100 servings.

See the attached guidelines for substitutions of eggs on all menus and adjusted menus for further clarification.

NOTE: The mandatory substitutions will be effective Monday June 1st, 2015.

The Bureau of Contract Management and Monitoring will continue to monitor the availability of eggs and egg substitutes. Please contact me for any questions or concerns.
