

7-3-15 What Geel did 4 me today

1st let me tell U about yesterday -

So last night I came before Geel with a heavy heart. See my neighbor cranks his music, which ~~blows~~ ~~blows~~ floccingly overtakes the vents & pumps the rap beats into my sanctuary. Attracted 2 rap music, though it's bad 4 U (some of the lyrics - not rap as style of music in general) I found myself needing my heart 2 the satanic message of get in & all these womers Geel help. I need my mind renewed. Amen.

So Geel, lovin the fact I'm pursuin after Him reminded me that "if U put ur radio in the bed U'll get some stations (Christian)."

I did so at approx. 5pm. I got in all the stations the Christian one came in real ~~stably~~ stably. Likes. Then it faded away completely.

Not 2 Bout done I moved my radio next 2 my TV cause it was beel time. Still I played with the FM dial till I heard a tone that was familiar 2 my ♡. It was stably, but not enuff 2 draw out. The call letters etc - "U'r listening 2 91.9 - The Family Praise Geel. I lay'd there happily prayin - "Geel thank U. Thanks 4 let'in me see Marvin & givin me favor & grace 2 go up 2 him & say "man all is 4 given: it's over" Thanks 4 put'n it in my ♡ 2 offer him Romance Publishing internmenten. -- Geel thank U 4 get'in this station in - nothing is 2 hard 4 U ☺ Yes MY GOD CAN DO EVERYTHING. Thank U Geel that there's nothing U can't save me from ☺ I can't wait 2 teach Priska that & show her that as well Amen."

I was even awoken or mind sleep 2 hear them givin an encouraging testimony about an author named Jean? All I remember was "Jean? Struggled till she surrendered all her hopes, her dreams, & her ambitions 2 Geel 2 do what He want with them. -- Now her novels -- & her fictional characters are -- 4 Jesus. --"

Praise Geel. Message - Just earlier. Gene K. had asked me "Have U been writing lately?"

At my hesitation & shy smile he responded "Don't quit, keep writing." (I just now my eye caught a book mark my roommate has on the wall with a quote by Virginia ~~Woolf~~ Woolf → "Books are the mirrors of the soul."

Now

2 this morning

I pretty much woke up ~~the~~ ~~morning~~ 2 the alarm clock. Said 6am but it's really 5:45am. I went down to the bathroom & took care of necessities then went 2 breakfast. Back in my room I prayerfully listened 2 the radio. Yes the station was still on. As I closed in & out I caught words of encouragement about, "walk by faith, don't wait till U can see it with ur physical eyes or touch it with ur physical hands... walk by faith when there's no evidence in sight :)"

7:24am I prayed, "God if I fall asleep please wake me up so I can take Joe 2 pill line - let me know if I should go 2 the library."

7:55am I decided 2 wash dishes & get ready 4 pill line! If I catch it early enough I can still make the library" I thought.

7:55am (that ~~time~~ time) I was notified that ~~to~~ Joe also had 2 take a shower - "OK maybe library went happen!" "Hey Joe U ~~shower~~ got ur shower stuff?"

"No, I'm good"

"OK"

"What day is it? - Tuesday?"

"No it's Friday. Taken a shower?"

"Noam"

As pill line shuffled along I dwelt of the maelstrom on men's anxieties. Anxiety bout home, bout social security, bout "what gynecologist workin", bout somebody else's business, bout nothin'!

Observing the clock I noticed it was 8:10am - OK library probably went happen - it's all good. God must have other plans 4 me ☺. I grew in patience 4 my constituents who were now - practically standing in my ~~singular~~ singular back pocket!

8:30 am ~~with~~ arriving on the unit I thought that maybe I could still make it 2 the library. Just have the Yo call down there & say "Murphy's on the way; he was at meal pass." But as the Yo walked ~~past~~ pass me I felt no desire 2 go 2 the library. Off 2 my room I went.

From there I went 2 wash dishes & boil the smell of burritos out of em! Spotted the runner tellin people "U got properly" I prayed. "God I'm believe'n that my shoes R here. It's been about 10 days. God I pray that if I'm on the list the runner would tell me. That he might not hold a grudge based on the fact that we don't see eye 2 eye Amen. Ps help me 4 give him as well. Amen"

3 minutes later I was stopped "hey U got properly. 2nd shelf". Smiles graced my face. I ran 2 my room & got on my knees & prayed & thanked God 4 ~~answering~~ answering my prayers even 4 shoes. Thanks 4 the time & space 2 even get on my knees & pray - gain love ya!! ☺

BY I went God reminded me 2 take my old properly receipt from Tues so as 2 prevent controversy about how many pairs of shoes I got. On the way down there I thought of how I need 2 buy ribbons (by faith) so I can get Urban Proverbs typed up, cause I'm believe'n God 4 a publisher ☺ Amen.

Yeah I "bent the rush". Sitting on the bench I prayed 2 not get a certain Yo 2 call me as he's not the most pleasant person 2 deal with. My prayers were answered as the Yo who threw away my old shoes - this - was now giving my new shoes. Controversy averted. Amen.

Better yet the type of shoes would even be a surprise. I dreamt of black shoes many months BY a friend of mine offered 2 buy me a pair. I didn't tell him what style or brand I got, just told him

"I wear a size 10 1/2" well as the delivery shoe box opened - there they were - a black pair of shoes! What are the odds. They could've been white or grey! On top of that they were low tops - what are the odds. See ~~to~~ B4 my friend offered 2 buy me a random pair of shoes I had made out an order form 4 a pair of low top black ~~sketchers~~ sketchers. Heck at Cael. The coolest part was the shoes were a size 11 which helped them fit - "just ~~not~~ right ;"

I can't wait till I get a visit or till my Belay so I can wear them! They have 2 last at the most - 2 yrs ;

Yup I'm believing Cael 2 miraculously get me outta here in less than 24 months Amer. I had a dream. Yup. That I was pushing a red laundry cart - releasing from Red Granite ; so I'm not banking on seeing another prison - Praise Cael. If I'm misinterpreting the dream then Cael will let me know Amer. - least thing Cael want is 4 me 2 lie on them or about them. Feel me?

Today get's better. At lunch (11:25 am) a friend stop me & said, "Who buys all the chocolate u use 2 make people cakes?"

"I do"

"Well what do u need? Hershey Bars? Cocoa?"

"Well the base is cookies ="

"Well I'm gone buy u a bunch of chocolate in the coming weeks - what do u want?"

"Hershey Bars would be cool & a welcomed ~~addition~~ addition"

I thanked Mike & told him that God would be blessing him. Course he gave his usual comment, "I'm not down if 4 that." 2 which I responded "I don't do it 4 that - either, but - God blesses me just the same." Praise God.

It's 12:43 pm (my time) & I can't wait 2 see what the rest of today has in store 4 me ;
