

1 MR. RODGERS: He wants Mr. Padilla to be able to
2 testify.

3 THE COURT: Apparently so.

4 MR. RODGERS: Your Honor, will you rule?

5 THE COURT: Well, he has a right to call the witnesses
6 that are relevant to the proceedings.

7 MR. RODGERS: Your Honor, he has violated the rules of 8 discovery. I don't have any report.

9 THE COURT: You don't have Bowen's report with Padilla
10 mentioned in it?

11 MR. RODGERS: But that's Bowen's hearsay that --

12 ✓ THE COURT: I can't compel an officer to make a report. ✓
13 According to the DA, Mr. Padilla's conduct is reflected in 14 Bowen's report. This is not unusual, Mr. Rodgers. It is often 15 the case that the investigating officer will contain in his 16 report what other officers have done. This is a normal
17 environment.

18 MR. RODGERS: It's just a little cheesy.

19 To move on, Your Honor, I would like to introduce the 20 9-1-1 tape under the excited utterance.

21 THE COURT: 9-1-1 tape.

22 MR. RODGERS: And the transcript of -- Mr. King doesn't 23 have a problem with the transcript. The transcript is -- I have 24 listened to the tape and the transcript, the --

25 THE COURT: There is a 9-1-1 tape?

26 MR. KING: There is, Your Honor. I hadn't planned on 27 introducing them.

1 commercial A license, and congress has said that all states are
2 required to --

3 MR. KING: I will make this easy. I am going to 4 dismiss that particular count, Count V.

5 THE COURT: We won't have to worry about that one.

6 MR. RODGERS: The other count that I would ask to 7 dismiss is the one for the terrorist threats --

8 THE COURT: Does that have to do with what was 9 happening with the wife in the parking lot?

10 MR. KING: Correct.

11 MR. RODGERS: I think I would like to stop myself
12 first. There is a motion to declare witness -- the alleged 13 victim witness Joyce ~~Rodgers~~ unavailable is particular
14 time I would have the Court

15 THE COURT: She is

16 MR. KING: We can't complaining victim-witness

22 MR. RODGERS: And my investigator has also looked for 23 her and is unable to find her. And at this time I would like to 24 have her transcript that -- her transcript of her testimony that 25 she gave before Judge Sherman and into evidence as --

26 THE COURT: Entered into evidence.

27 MR. RODGERS: Not into evidence, but I intend to use
28 that as an exhibit and allow the jury to read her transcript as
