

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Welcome to the Truth.blog

First and foremost I must thank our Lord and sustainer, the Creator of all things for blessing me with the faculties which permit me to hear, see, feel, think and ponder. It is through these gifts that we're able to take whats in our hearts and transform it into communicative expressions that we can share with millions who may be feeling and thinking the same thing.

Second I want to thank you! Thank you for taking the chance on what I have to share not being a complete waste of brain cells. I only intend to open my pen to write whats relevant, beneficial and truthful, as well as give you a glimpse inside the heart and mind of an incarcerated man who refuses to be a prisoner.

I pray that you enjoy your time spent on my page. Feel free to leave a comment or write me at: DA Robinson # AF7903
