

Hell's fire is God's fire

Believe me this I know,
this fire will melt snow;
from boiling water to h2o,
and dissolve rocks till they glow,
make diamonds in the rough.

Hell's fire is God's fireworks.
Please don't fall in this trap;
and sure there's a way out.
Follow the Blood and the Cross,
like the North and South Poles!

Hell's fire is God's fire.
Human combustion. Spiritual combustion;
or take communion
in the Church's Union.
Cause God's fire burns on.

Hell's fire is God's fire.
Ignited for the flying Serpent.
Inferno that is tense.
It does not even make sense
to God's fire that descends.

Hell's fire is God's fire
Deprived of the Spirit from on high;
God whom man can't fight.
God's a consuming fire!

Hell's fire is God's fire.
Burning in hell's fire,
is a choice, a real fright;
God is a consuming fire!

Hell's fire is God's punishment divine,
for the fallen Seraphim,
and demons and the fiends.
They'll be toasting and crying and melting,
in the glory of the Light!

Hell's fire, Dead's fire;
Eternal Trinity or immortal inferno,
is not a fire made of coals,
of woods nor obvious smoke;
hell's fire is fueled by the Light of Old!

Hell's fire is God's fire,
charged by the Blood of the Lamb;
from the Throne of the Man,
and God's unity with the Davidic Lion,
at last shall take Dominion!
