Dear Capmann 1880,

Thank you for the support. Don't worry about good ole Paul he is just so angry that after having titles like "Director of Security" and "Commander of the IPS" he had to embrace the fact that he was just an abusive turnkey. As Mark Twain said, "The Dregs of humanity..." His ire is taken out on my free speech because the Secret Service and FBI all laughed at his job applications citing "DOC experience". So sad that someone went from delusions of granduer to reading prisoner blogs. Oh well. He is in "harm's way" in a war of words; and losing!

Guards like Paul are pissed that finally a prisoner gets to expose their daily misbehavior. Their hateful message boards have discredited good prisoner activities for years, but mostly they just spewed hatred at each other, now that I have a meager blog that calls them out, airs their dirty laundry, Paul gets his panties in a bunch. I support his right to criticise; glad you saw the self-hatred for what it was. He hates himself so much he has to demonize me.

If you feel you can get involved in the cause to expose the failed prison system please contact me directly. A lot of good stuff going on. Thank you again. I am,

Sincerely Yours,
