

A Waste of Time, by: Myron E. Edwards, Sr. (Part I)

Look, listen and learn - that's what a brand-new baby does as it burst out the darkened womb into the light of the world.

Look, listen and learn - that's what we are told to do in all stages of life we go through. LOOK! A MAN sees that human behavior is simple to predict, because people are repetitive in nature no matter what the subject is.

Look, listen and learn - that's what we are told to do in all stages of life we go through. LISTEN! A MAN never heard people say anything original, whatever is said now someone else has already said, human behavior is simple to predict, because people are repetitive in nature no matter what the subject is.

Look, listen and learn - that's what we are told to do in all stages of life we go through. LEARN! that people are not really worth paying any attention to, human behavior is simple to predict, because people are repetitive in nature no matter what the subject is.

Look, listen and learn - that's what we are told to do in all stages of life we go through. Human behavior is simple to predict, because people are repetitive in nature no matter what the subject is. So, why am I interacting with you, running in circles & wasting my time in this mundane game we call socializing? ||

Resentment, Inferiority Complex & Wounded Arrogance, by: Myron E. Edwards, Sr. (Part II)

Resentment said: "A waste of time, nigga who is you... like you have said some original shit or or done something ^{new}!"

Inferiority Complex said: "Yeah, a waste of time is right, you spend your time studying others, but yourself you pay no mind! I worry about me and what I say & do... I don't concentrate on how the next person is true!"

Wounded Arrogance said: "MAN, to keep it real - what you said was a waste of time, because I thought like that and expressed those things when I was 9! You see you're new to this, but I've been aware of how simple people are for a long time. I do this analyzing shit for real... to produce dollar signs. I'm on a whole other level, to me - you're just starting the climb! MAN, do you think you're the only one with some-what of all good mind!?"

Resentment continued: "Nigga! A waste of time... MAN, you're the one wasting your time... worried about somebody's mind! If you knew so much, then why ain't you free?! Knowing so much is what got your ass caught in the first place! It's funny how your ass didn't know how to keep running or hide in order to live to see the light of day. Me, I go home in a matter of time...

and you'll still be here talking about predicting people's minds!"

Inferiority Complex continued: "What, you think you're better than others (i.e., too low in self-esteem to say 'me') just because you talk a little bit proper or like a white boy and read a few books!?"

Wounded Arrogance continued: "MAN, I got so much going on in the mental, you couldn't understand!! MAN, I'm a VETERAN... I have plenty of major plans & schemes that'll get me some green." || ||

All 3 of them finished: "Then again, I bet you heard all of this shit before too. It's niggas like you who are predictable & repetitive, WANNA-be doctor w/PhD's & so-called intellectuals!"
