- BITCH BUTTONS BROKEN - "QUICK: SHUT THE PRISON DOWN!"

Many call Memorial Day Weekend the official start of summer and throw beach parties, pool parties, and cookouts. Well here at ShirleyWorld our parties were a bit more humble (except for an exclusive few) as they had us locked in our cages for the holiday weekend. Why you ask? Because their "bitch buttons" (radio rescue buttons) were broken and they were scared to death that if Shameless Peckerhead or Lt. Dick McHardy was catchin' a bad one from some disgruntled customer that they would not be able to summon the calvary to bail em' out. You see everyone is a tough guy when they have their personal bitch button on their hip, but when the radio system shits the bed they get their yellow streak all lathered up and lock us in the cage. Now we did not miss too much. I guess Lt. Peckerhead had a pool and jacuzzi party down in the Chapel. It has been reported that Shameless filled the baptismal font with water and had Sgt. Bitch act as the bubble machine by farting stale Budweiser bubbles on command. Deputy Denied-Oh threw a Beach Party out in the "fresh air area" of the "Sniff". She wore her Moose-knuckle capri pants and Sand Dune Jelly Shoes while allowing dementia patients to spin Jan & Dean records. DJ Drool-ex dug into the record collection and found The Venture's hit "Wipeout" to play as Frank Soffen slip out of his wheelchair. CO Scumlafia had a cook out in the riot squad staging area outside the HSU where they roasted a pig fresh out of the Academy. The kegs were paid for out of the "Wellness Committee" DWI prevention awareness fund and they also played Dunk The Clown with the rented Dunk Tank. They had Captain Stupid don the red nose and make-up (both permenant features of his) and Walks and Grounds employees threw pairs of weather appropriate bo-bo's at the tank buzzer. Captain Stupid was sent crashing into the tank full of blood which was gathered from the dorms in the HSU. Fun for all. Many other employees took part in the LT. KIM URINE 5K to raise money for her pennicilin shots. It is rumored that School Principal B. Ho-Hum showed up for the run in spandex emblazoned with the motto: "Thinkin' with the little head!" As we sat in our cells and contemplated the demise of the free world the rats had a great time here while Kelly Rubber Stamp Wry-On cruised the Riviera with the Sgt. Big Chew Charlestown's All Male Review dancing to the summer tunes of the Beach Boys. Kicking off the summer in the right way! I wonder if Prada makes water skis?

- SHIRLEYWORLD GETS ITS GAS CHAMBER / RUBBER STAMPT GIVEN LATE NIGHT TOUR

After months of waiting anxiously for the approval of the capital gains request it is finally solidified that ShirleyWorld will get the Gas Chamber that Deputy Denied-Oh and Lt. Pepe LaDouche co-wrote the proposal for. The prison will be converting B-Block into a full blown gas chamber. Deputy Denied-Oh was quoted as saying, "I am aware that the aging prison population has become a huge problem for systems across the country and with my 31 years of experience I knew I could come up with a solution." The plan, as we read it here at Free Speech Central, is to move the sick and dying into the B Block and then have CO Hasbeen (reported to have great "lung" capacity if you get my drift) "blow out" the pilots to the water heaters and slowly gas the men to death. On Tuesday night, May 26, Rubber Stamp Wry-On got to preview the program as she was called to the prison at about 10:30 p.m. after CO Hasbeen, fresh off the elbow to the mug, huffed and puffed and blew all the pilots out! The men were getting gassed and falling into a comfortable deep sleep, but as the program had not been officially started she ordered her highly trained 3-11 shift humanitarians to rouse all the aged from their slumber. Lt. McHardly was quoted as saying, "We don't need no stinkin' gas chambers. Just handcuff these old men and I beat them to death. I'm 5-1 against men over 75." Lt. Peckerhead was eager to fill the gas tanks but could not get the proper certification due a dirty urine for low grade weed, estrogen, and p-town "poppers". Ms. Wry-On has no idea that men in the C-Block smell gas each week coming from B-Block and once the Warrior even wrote Deputy McCan't about an alarm sounding over there all night long. McCan't's (he McCan't find enough ways to avoid issues) response was something like "Don't worry about it. Just crawl under your desk like we did in school during the cold war drills." His top priority is the scourge a felonious pigeon feeders and heinous clothesline scofflaws so he ain't got no time to worry about constant gas emergencies. Deputy Denied-Oh chose to team up with Lt. Pepe LaDouche on this project as she "hand picked" him to run her Sniff's "speak out and get beat out" program. If you complain about the care you are receiving in her death chamber than Lt. LaDouche will take your pen, paper, stamps, and last shred of dignity. Her 31 years of "experience" has taut her well. I think Heinrich Himmler had 31 years of experience before he finally made his trip to hell. "I must cull the herd!" Denied-oh declared and Rubber Stamp fiddled from the Deck of the Ivory Tower as she watched her Rome burn.

- CLINTON ITEM REPORTS ON IVORY TOWER CONCERT SERIES "FROM THE DAM"

Ima Coplover, Senior Correspondent for the Clinton Item, gave a glowing review of Rubber Stamp Wry-On's traveling version of the Ivory Tower Concert Series which was held atop the Clinton Dame. It is reported that Ms. Wry-On herself stood atop the dam in a Grateful Dead inspired "Scarlet Begonia Skirt" with "roses tucked into her curls" as she danced what appeared to be an LSD (or possibly suboxone) infused "Whirling Durbish Hippie Dance" to the flow of the live tunes. Even the boss has to let her hair down sometimes and a few micrograms of LSD may just loosen her up a bit; bring a little grin to that steady affect. Reporter Coplover gave praise to Deputy denied-Oh's professional sound system from her top-of-the-line prison music program. Deputy Denied-Oh danced the Rhumba and Fox Trot with her date Captain Shebert who wore a pink/lilac camo jogging suit for the event. (Just in case he had to take off if/when the Deputy had one of her power meltdowns). Lt. Urine had a "Kissing Booth" atop the dam which the Item reported was quite successful. "The only problem with the kissing booth was that many reported Lt. Urine's breath smelt a bit like a box of condoms." reported Coplover, "but all in all it was a successful event." Some underground newspaper sources also reported that Lt. Shameless Peckerhead was seen consuming hot dogs without chewing them and that he kept glaring at the backsides of some of the young men seen rockin' out, but besides that he was well behaved. "My backwoods ass never got much action growing up, except at Boy Scouts Camp, and I like to sow my wild oats with the locals from time to time.", Peckerhead said. It looks like the next traveling date for the Ivory Tower Concert Series may be held at Fort Devens Grill where Rubber Stamp plans to book Aretha Franklin to sing "Respect" in hopes that she may get some from her staff as well as to book Led Zeppelin to sing "Nobody's Fault But Mine.", in honor of her supervisory capacity of the rogue 3-11 shift. Let's see you dance to that girl!

- RIPLEY'S "BELIEVE IT OR NOT" TO BE FILMED AT SHIRLEYWORLD

The TV nostalgia craze is coming to ShirleyWorld! The age old newspaper column and then modern age TV show "Ripley's Believe It Or Not" will film several episodes here at ShirleyWorld. The first episode will cover the saga of the Deputy McCan't/CO Scumlafia "Owl" legacy. Ripley's will ask folks to consider "believing" that there could be such foolishness inside a state prison: Owl decoys? Are you shittin' me? The second episode will cover the wardrobe of Deputy Denied-Oh. They will ask viewers to "believe" that prison officials can on one blood stained hand claim the prison is dangerous and they are "understaffed" and then on the other blood stained hand feel safe enough to walk about the gulag in Capri Pants and Sundowner slip-ons. Hey Denied-Oh, Joe Camel called and he wants his toe back. The third episode will cover the supervisory staff of the 3-11 shift. They will ask folks to "believe" that such an assembly of morons, psychopaths, and mental defectives could be hired for one shift at one prison. Security camera footage of Lt. McHardly napping one off in the school building and of Lt. Peckerhead getting bitch slapped by Sgt. Messy-Her will be mixed in with footage of Lt. Pepe LaDouche excoriating dying men in the HSU. We believe, can you? Another episode will cover Kelly Rubber Stamp Wry-On's Ivory Tower Concert Series and the ShirleyWorld Suboxone Treatment Center, AKA Wry-On's Pharmacy Services.
