

NEVER HIDDEN

BY Timothy J. Muise

* * * * *

We in the "free speech" movement,
do not hide in the shadows.
We speak the truth and expose the evil,
while others criticize in hiding.
If you believe in your cause,
you don't hide your identity.
When you are proud of what you do,
you endorse it with full embrace.
Cowards hide in cyberspace,
user names as their mask.
The movement will push ever forward,
while jailers abuse their charge.
Speak not to me of what I do,
but speak to your hidden face.
Your shame is not mine,
I have moved beyond mine.
Free speech for all behind bars,
the end of the abuse at your hands.

MY WORLD

by Timothy J. Muise

My world is not surrounded by razor wire,
it is inside the hope in my heart.
My world is not subject to their abuse,
it flourishes under God's love.
