I remember that painting. I did three of them from a photo in a magazine. Do you really write all over your walls? Can you erase it? I know that black permanent markers are very difficult to paint over.

I'm not that remarkable, I'm 58 yrs old. ~~I'm~~

I'm on psych meds. I'm convicted of murder and arson. Yesterday I was a drop of dirty fluid.

Today I'm a bag containing excrement.

Tomorrow I will be a rotting corpse. I have way more sins than most people which is my worry.

Although I'd welcome a visit and an ice cream from the visiting room vendor I doubt that it would be a honor for anyone to meet me.

I do have a huge problem with the mail officer stealing my mail. I have a lawsuit against him and other prison officials connected with the ~~crime~~ crime. If you have problems writing ~~me~~ me
