Today is a Good Day.

This morning I awoke after dreaming of being in Peru where I met up with Buzzy Brewer, the Chaplain I worked for for a number of years. Peru is where Pastor Jack, my pastor always, served as a missionary for a few decades with Wycliff Bible Translators. Doesn't seem to significant?

For decades I was plagued by dreams of devastation and loss, awaking with the full force of the emotions that accompany such event.
Jehovah Rapha, Our God Heals!

Praise Him Today and have a great day! ☺

In Him
