Hello world and Merry Christmas!

Today a man was told, "go pack-up, you're going home - being released."

It was an exciting moment to witness! He was clearly in stunned disbelief. Whenever I see someone, especially a good hearted man, being released early I am very happy.

As sad as the attacks in San Bernadino, California and Colorado Springs, Colorado were... I am really impressed with the great performance of the police officers.

In Iraq there can be 100-attacks like these every day. Pray we in America do not experience this. With quick and professional action as we've seen here by our police it should never get so bad.

This is the proper way to deploy "military" level police response - Not against American citizens exercising our constitutional right to protest against corrupt practices.

"... OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE,
FOR THE PEOPLE..." let us not forget.
