

THE CALLING

(By Richard Valadez 08 / 09 / 2015)

A friend asked me to write something about God? I wondered if a Testimony would suffice? Or would a poem of praise be pleasing? But after careful contemplation, I came to the conclusion that the spiritual connection that I now share with Jesus Christ will be the truth and tale that I now tell –

From the beginning a voice spoke (many) now know it as the calling! Some have answered it! (most) have not... in some circles it has been written off as a delusion – or an internal escape from some (external) problem.. Some have even felt the calling to be a realized epiphany, or the voice of long gone loved one... Sadly some have heard the calling but “feared it”, forsook it and even tried to find shelter from it... Inside of prisons (self-made) and un-necessarily occupied. Some have even tried drugs and alcohol and un-Christ like acts to create a perfect escape – from the perfect Gift...

But the Calling will never cease... the voice will be heard and forever accompanied by a wonderful feeling (even) though there is no visible face.

Because Jesus Christ came to sit with the sad and to save the sinners that are bound to be Saints.

I heard the calling without an understanding (only) a hope, now my prayer is for you to hear it, answer it and embrace it!!! And not fear it..

God Bless
