Dear SAH,

Please try to understand that we are just trying to do the good work here using unorthodox means; it is the only way the powerless can get their voice heard. Bumps in the road are expected. Gypsyrose is a great person and blameless for being human. Not everyone will agree with our work, and some will leave "anonymous" negative comments. The internet is full of cowardly trolls. Your support and understanding is needed and valued. Free Speech is important. Thank you for supporting it. We bring hope to men who have had hope stripped from their lives.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Peace,

TJM
