Dear Gypsy/LKR,

It moves me that you were moved by the poem. Thank you for your support of the writing; it is a survival tool in this dark environment. My hopes are that you will keep reading and keep communicating. Your encouragement is so valuable. Be safe.

Peace,

TJM

Darkness is destroyed by light, light can be conveyed in the word.
Illumination can answer the challenge,
and the answer can be challenging.
This challenge can save us,
if we choose to embrace it.
