♡ I got your blog last night or yesterday in the afternoon - I was in the middle of painting this happy face 😊 I think I got one of those blogs you're talking about from someone with the handle SAH "she says right I am a "cuckoo bird" but then you know that "some of my posts are outrageous (I hope) and I am ingenuous - the best way to deal with this is not to answer it but I do hate that it took up so much room. They have been getting the blogs out on Monday so for this year" and as you can see (I hope) I've been posting more - I was working on this one over the weekend - just finished the little happy face. It's easier when I'm hearing back, getting feedback. I put 2 posts out this pass <sup>Jan.</sup> month, 1 on the 5th and 1 on the 14th to answer your last messages? I have been doing a little painting, wrote a couple of poems. Arthritis is acting up - I hurt all over my fingers get bad now almost can bend them at time - the <sup>right</sup> knee is the worse follow by the right big toe that I broke back in '62 "still waiting to see the Doctor". I miss you on my walks in the rain but still I can feel you here with me in these pre-dawn hours. You will always be the sunshine that fills my life. Forever + Ever ♡♡

P.S. what the hell is IMO? 😊
