

Dear Hammer.

11 Nov. 15

The last we spoke, as with your last letter to me, you appeared to be very angry and antagonistic — and with Just Cause, re: ARC Breaks you've brought to my attention time and time again.

I appreciate you letting me know that you intended to disconnect, while explaining that decision and acknowledging the value of our earlier alliance. You've made tremendous gains displaying freetheta in the time we've known each other, and it's been an honor to be a part of that.

Now, the supreme test for you my friend, is to make things go right. Whereas my fabian methods prefer less aggressive means, you appear convinced that litigation will hold the powers that be — up to a legal standard.

Let me remind you that Games are Traps, so be mindful of this in your effort-counter effort games, and simply Do what you know is the right thing to do — and never lose sight of the stable datum why you began this game in the first place.

✓ "Living History" is a marvelous way to describe what you're doing. Yet, such ambition could be interpreted by veteran pioneers as exposing their overt of omission re: Prison Reform. And rightly so, champ! You put the ass in asset.

With that said, I bid you Fare Thee Well.
