Yes I completed my business technology class with a B average. Yes it was great achievement because before I entered prison, I never finished anything. Because of the negative words that was spoken into my life by my mother, I felt like I wasn't worthy enough to do anything positive in my life. I always felt like a failure and mistake for even existing in this world.

But today, after being locked up 18 years and 3 months. My mindset is total free. I share my life with others by inspiring. Let them know they we all go through storms of life. But guess what we can do this together. You're not in your storm alone. I am there with you in the spirit and through prayer. A encouraging word, story, ~~or~~ testimony, or a smile.

I might not can't help people fully the way I desire. Prison does not cripple me from being there for others. Thank you for your encouraging words. Thank you for letting me know somebody thinking about me. That means alot behind these walls. Mrs. Emma, I would love to correspond with you; more. I would love to get to know about me. You Can get to know more about me. You can E-mail me under www.jpay.com. I was telling my husband today in letter. That we as family friends, community, church, government etc we got to stick together more in unity and love.

The word the Lord gave me today Eccl 4:12 Holy Bible Though one may be overpowered two can defend themselves
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken
There are advantages to cooperating with others. Life is designed for companionship, not isolation, for intimacy, not loneliness. Some people prefer isolation, thinking they cannot trust anyone. We are not here on earth to serve ourselves, however, but to serve God and others.
Don't isolate yourself and try to go ~~it~~ at it alone. Seek companions. be a team member. you have a great day Mrs. Emma. Knows that you are in my prayers. I hope to hear from you real soon.

Sincerely
Jennifer Johnson
