

THE PRISON FLU EPIDEMIC: Stupid is as Stupid Does

One of the unexpected punishments of imprisonment, is to find yourself not only surrounded by stupidity—but you get to share in their self-inflicted punishments. Such as: no pork products because a minor 4 percent of 25,000 plus prisoners cry about it and refuse to just eat a specially prepared nonpork diet; they want everyone to eat as they do, dictating the majority. Imagine that? The prison store, cannot offer sugar, or many sugar products, due to the alcoholics making wine. Prisoners buy contraband tobacco and drugs from officers, and visitors of prisoners, family including the elderly, get blamed and outright accused. There are visitors stupid enough to mule stuff in, but 98 percent or so of the mules I see have on badges!

Right now, we're on a lock-down due to the flu. One guy in my dorm has "flu-like symptoms" in the form of a fever. There are 256 of us now quarantined in wait of his fever coming down! Really? What I don't understand is, why not let the dorm cleaners—oh, I don't know—clean the dorm. Wipe everything down with bleach instead of using it to clean their tennis shoes and teeth. Yeah, they do that. Every year this happens. They offer us a flu shot (I get one), and a group of idiots always cry, "Oh, I get the flu every time I get one." Really? So you're like the first person in United States history to get the flu from a flu shot? The virus is dead in it you well, I won't say. These guys can't do basic math or English, forget any chance of them comprehending science—that's why they clutch their bibles. It makes them look good, part of the club, and it gives them simple answers.

No offense to anyone; I'm just sick of all this fake Christianity. If you're a real one, kudos. I just don't see any here. Most I see that go to the church are in here for molesting children or raping and killing women—they justify their actions with the Old Testament. Don't ask me how. They really just use the chapel as a homosexual meeting ground. A place that will buy their soul for a cup of coffee and a pack of cookies. They're taught to pray instead of getting a flu shot. They call H1N1 "swine flu" and think it's only something you only get by eating pork or being an unrepentant heathen. I better stop here before I get myself in trouble.

I just read "Sacré Bleu" by Christopher Moore. Loved it!

"DO NOT BONK THE JULIETTE"

Yeah, right. Imagine that? Just dusting....

It's a wonder I don't have the flu.
