Blog Title: ~~Spilled~~ Emotional ~~...~~...

- Hello World...

It's me again, Quietly moving through a real block full of vultures, snakes and backstabbers with hopes of becoming a better man. I'll tell you, It's very hard to adapt to this type of environment. It is a different world, in and of itself. One can't teach one what it is like in a place like and such as this and one cannot prepare one to go through the trials and tribulations, Ups and Downs and the Cause and Effects that a place such as this entails. This is not a world that one would prefer to come of age in. One should not want to become a man in a place such as this. A mother or father should not, or does not, for that matter, want their son ~~to become a man~~ to become a man, guided by the system.....

For those who are new to this blog, My name is Quashau. ~~Supreme~~ Supreme Intelligence Natural Born and I'm here to bring you Truth, Thought, and Spilled Emotions.

It's been said that "Family is worth fighting for."

Many may actually agree with that sentiment, and while many of you may agree, that agreement stems from the fact that an agreement has been made simply because, you have families that really are worth fighting for. You have a loving and supportive family, so that makes it easy to want to fight for your family. But what about those with no family?

What would you say to them?

When there is nothing, no family to fight for, what is one to do then?

Who knows? But I do know that there are always two sides to every coin and I can only give you the perspective <sup>from</sup> the side of the coin I fall under.

I, like every child ever born into humanity and to a set of parents, mother, father, did not ask to be here. I had no choice in the matter.

Now I love life. Life is wonderful. Life is amazing.

There is nothing better than to live. Because living brings us numerous experiences and without life, we would never be able to experience the experience. Because life is no rehearsal. It's Reality TV, everyday, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

Me personally, I say that, Family isn't everything and Family isn't worth fighting for. But I say that, only because I have no family worth fighting for.

It's just me...

I'd like to tell you that I know the reason I had no family.

But, I don't...

I'd like to tell you that I understand why I have no family.

But, again, I don't...

I have never burned any bridges within my family.

I have never given anyone any reason to run off and go.

All I can say, is that, life goes on with or without you.

Is it fair? Who knows? But I do know that, it's life.

And what doesn't kill you is supposed to make you stronger.

I say that, Having no family, Makes you bitter.

Because, When you are strong by yourself, you have no one to have faith in. You draw within yourself, distancing yourself from the outside, which is everyone else.

That's why it's called IN-Dependent...

I'll leave you with this...

People say a lot of things, but it's not the words that show if ~~we~~ <sup>we</sup> are what ~~we~~ <sup>we</sup> present. It's our actions that bring out what we represent.... If family is everything, then why isn't everything within the family is a tight circle?
