

the most publicly documented advance tactical military training, which form the basis for united states commando forces, cold~~w~~^{er} weather training in the rocky mountains of colorado, during world war two, cross country skiing, being as tactical as possible, the exercise is operating behind enemy lines, & these are speed exercises, conducted as fast as is humanly possible, & as tactically as is humanly possible, whoever in any way breaks discipline in these two areas, speed & tactics, fails the exercise, which consists of eight & nine miles individual & teams of two & individuals, 15 miles group as a group & teams as a team, & all of this done on the most professional basis humanly possible, the original American special force, during the American revolutionary war, Rogers rangers, a irregular force lead by Robert Rogers, who specialized in speed marches from town to town five miles, & through the wilderness to an enemy camp & surprise attack, where they speed march for miles, & wait in ambush for hours, in harsh conditions, title pharaoh obama, solitary supermax has become me senses numbed, mind gone crazy, losing it, lost it, am lost, freedom you say? how much does it cost? may i pay in this sweat drip from my brow years alone or my tired soul? you must tell me how but don't even whisper, accept the way this system is, not a chance you greedy imperialistic pigs open the mexican border, leave the Middle East alone downsize these concentration camps. let my people go! money, money, that's all you're about Amerikkka's guilty.

the gavel comes down *
