Hi Rita, thank you for responding. I kind of like this blog thing, it's alot faster than the mail. 😊 I don't know to much about all this computer stuff. Most of it was just coming out when I came to prison 21 years ago. By the way, what is the difference betwee blogging and face book?

Happy Valentine's day to you also and in case I don't hear from you by the time it gets here, Happy Easter also.

Bright Blessings,

Henry
