

SNAKE BITE written 3/1/16

Dreams

while AWAKE

the sting of them

feel like

the bites of SNAKES

Dreams while asleep

caused by the hope

death would seem

so much more

Appealing

Its Not as though

I've lost all hope

meant to lose

meant to live

no life away from you

No life worth living

is how the chains

bind.

CATCHES hold to keep me

tormented in my mind

Inside the mind

NO SENSE of time

to torment me

it runs together

in a string of lost things

Fragments DOWN

of memories

I'd rather just forget

But doing so is easier than just

remembering the strain

caused by the bites

of snakes

as they sink in
