HELLO!

How ARE YOU?
As for me? well I'm okay, I had an awesome day today let me ~~expa~~ explain → I use to live in Charlie dorm (this is the dorm were the dogs are housed) then 3 months ago I was classified into the RTU program wich stands for Residential treatment unit. So, what happend was I had to leave Charlie dorm and move into another dorm to complete a 6 month drug and alcohol treatment program, Really? I mean after being incarcerated for 14 years I have recieved my:

GED

CDL Commercial Drivers License

Environmental Horticulture

Architectural Drafting

Plus I have trained 8 dogs
2 of them were service dogs.

I honestly didnt think I would need any help I mean HELLO I've BEEN incarcerated for 14 years! So, ~~as~~ when I found out 3 months ago that I WAS coming to the Treatment dorm I had a dog a lab whom I WAS training to be A fulltime service dog when I WAS classified out to be a fulltime Resident in the treatment program I had to leave the beautiful lab that I have been training for 3 months. he never learned the speak command (bark on command) due to the fact that he would never bark. I get to see him almost every day but sometimes its a couple days here and there that I dont get to see him on those days when I finally do see Brodie (thats his NAME → Brodie) he jumps All Around very happy to see me.

Well, HE SEEN ME today and let me just say he WAS SO happy to see me. As I walked away → he started

Barking! (smile)

So, As long AS Rec is OPEN tomorrow I Am going to teach him the speak command. I miss him so much! He's only across the compound but when you locked up its Amazing how much pride you can get from watching your dog learn and grow.

So, Yes! Today WAS an awesome DAY and tomorrow well tomorrow will BE EVEN BETTER.

I hope I hear from someone if not thats OKAY too. I know that I have a little Journal that I am starting here and in 8 months for the first time I will be free and I can have the opportunity opportunity to get on the computer and see what I wrote. BE GOOD!
